

A Literary Walk in the Woods 2017 Program Series

This year's program will feature Colorado, Nebraska and Wyoming in the late 1800's plus a special on two recent best-sellers that discuss "Trails".

The program begins in the classroom with a biography of the author, proceeds with a one-mile nature walk on Zook Loop Trail, stopping half way at the Rock Garden to read selections from the author's work. Class is free but a state park pass, ($7.00), is required. Reservations required at 719-576-2016. Meet at the Visitor Center. For your comfort, consider bringing a lightweight folding chair or mat to sit on.
